The Art of Caring for Generations

In New Rochelle since 1919

The New York Times Features United Hebrew's Lazarus Gallery

We are thrilled to share that the New York Times recent article, "Senior Care Facilities With World-Class Art" featured the exhibition on view in our very own Lazarus Gallery!

The Jan. 23 story includes an in-depth interview with our curator, Robin Zane, who describes how we are not only creating beautiful spaces for our residents, staff, and the community, but we are triggering memories through art for our residents with Alzheimer's and related dementias.

"Art Fired Up" runs through March 7 at the Lazarus Gallery and is open daily 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Most works are for sale.
