By Day, They Save Lives; After Hours, They Make Music!

‘Doctors in Concert’ June 13 at 7:30 p.m. to Benefit United Hebrew of New Rochelle

Five Physician Musicians to Perform Classical and Contemporary Selections

(New Rochelle, NY, May 8, 2019...) On June 13, United Hebrew of New Rochelle brings to the stage a group of leading Westchester physicians to showcase their musical talents at a special performance of “Doctors in Concert,” featuring classical and contemporary performances on piano, violin, cello, and guitar.

“By day, they save lives. After hours, they make beautiful music together!” says Rita Mabli, President & CEO. The concert is set for 7:30 p.m. at Willow Towers, United Hebrew’s assisted living community at 355 Pelham Road in New Rochelle. A reception with the performers will immediately follow.

The evening will benefit United Hebrew of New Rochelle, a nonprofit senior living campus that provides supportive care to Westchester’s seniors through an array of services including skilled nursing care, short-term rehabilitation, assisted living, and memory care. Part of United Hebrew’s Centennial Celebration, Doctors in Concert is open to the public. Tickets may be reserved by calling (914) 632-2804 x1137 or emailing Christine Sanders at csanders@uhgc.org.

“For the past 100 years, music has been integral to the care we provide; it triggers memories, lifts the spirits and soothes the soul,” says Mabli. “So, it is especially fitting – a privilege! – to have these caring physicians sharing their talents with us for this very special evening—a first in Westchester!”

Physician Performers Include:

- Melin Tan-Geller, MD, ENT & Allergy Associates, will play Scherzo Op. 12 No. 2 by Daniel Van Goens on piano and perform with her son Zachary Tan-Geller, who will accompany her on the cello;

- Alan Jaffe, MD, Westmed (retired), will play a variety of popular songs on piano;
- Ezriel Kornel, MD, Northern Westchester Hospital, will play violin and perform the 1st and 4th movements of J.S. Bach's Sonata #1 for unaccompanied violin, and Ashokan Farwell by Jay Unger;
- Daniel Markowicz, MD, White Plains Hospital will sing and play guitar;
- Neil Prufer, MD, ENT & Allergy Associates, will play piano and perform Mozart's Sonata in D Major K. 381 with Dr. Tan-Geller.
